Drivers and teams announced for second Emzone Radical Cup Canada race seasonPurpose-built, high-performance race cars 'designed to deliver racing excitement'

ST. CATHARINES, Ontario (May 12, 2022) – The Emzone Radical Cup Canada (Emzone RCC) presented by Michelin race series will feature 18 drivers for the 2022 race season, according to FEL Motorsports, race series promoter. The 2022 race season will get underway at the Castrol Victoria Day Speedfest, May 20-22, at Canadian Tire Motorsports Park.

"These purpose-built, high-performance race cars are designed to deliver racing excitement lap after lap," said Chris Bye, president of FEL Motorsports which oversees the race series. "We are committed to providing Canadian racing fans the best in wheel to wheel competition," said Bye.

Emzone RCC is building on its brand of motorsports excellence after an exciting inaugural season in 2021. Canadian Radical race teams and drivers will be competing for prizes at twin races each race weekend. "We are committed to giving back to the teams and drivers through prize money, which includes fuel and a set of racing tires every race weekend," he added.
