FEL Motorsports returns to Canadian Tire Motorsport Park for Victoria Day SpeedFest and Labour Day Sprints

Both FEL Motorsports series to race two weekends at the home of Canadian racing in 2024

ST. CATHARINES, ON (November 27, 2023) – The Sports Car Championship Canada (SCCC) and Radical Cup Canada (RCC) presented by Michelin will return to Canadian Tire Motorsport Park (CTMP) for the 2024 Victoria Day SpeedFest and Labour Day Sprints. Once again the SCCC and RCC will touchdown at these two major events, as the unquestionable home of Canadian racing has hosted both series each season since the inaugural 2021 FEL Motorsports campaign.

Victoria Day SpeedFest will take place May 17-19, 2024 and the Labour Day Sprints August 30 - September 1, 2024. Last year both events hosted roughly 50,000 fans and campers, with attendance expected to increase in 2024. The Labour Day Sprints weekend features the return of the iconic Trans-Am series, the longest running professional road racing series in North America. It will also be accompanied by FR Americas and F4 U.S, setting the stage for one of the largest non-IMSA race weekends at CTMP in many years.

“Returning to Canadian Tire Motorsport Park for the Victoria Day SpeedFest and Labour Day Sprints is a testament to the enduring partnership between the SCCC, RCC, and this iconic racing venue. As the home of Canadian racing, CTMP has been the backdrop for our events since the inaugural 2021 FEL Motorsports season, and we’re thrilled to continue this tradition,” said Chris Bye, President of FEL Motorsports.

Tickets will be available for purchase on the CTMP website in the coming months.
